The Director of Central Intelligence

Washington, D.C. 20505

17 July 1980

Dear Dennis,

Now that I am back at the office again, I want to say how much I enjoyed and appreciated all that you did for me last Friday. The chance to visit with you at such length without any pressure was really a unique privilege. I feel that I got a lot out of it. My staff may not be pleased--the new ideas are already bouncing their way!

I called my grandsons as soon as I got home. "The Empire" has only been in Norfolk for three weeks but they've both seen it twice! Thanks for your nice offer--maybe the next time. The grandsons will enjoy the various paraphernalia that Tex pulled together for us.

Please thank Ray, Ron, Tex and Karen for all they did as well. I admire the great efficiency of your organization--there wasn't a thing they could have done for us that they didn't.

Let me renew the invitation to get together with you and Terri whenever you are in Washington. In the meantime, thanks once more and very best wishes.

Yours,
